More information about the Egypt visa can be found on the following pages in this document.

For whom

All travellers that want to travel to Egypt and do not hold an Egyptian passport, need to apply for a visa. There are several types of visas you can apply for, most of which must be obtained by visiting the embassy. However, if you meet the requirements listed in this document, you can submit your application online in full. Your visa will then be sent to you by e-mail, so you don't even have to leave the house.

It does not matter whether you arrive by plane, car or boat. The visa requirement is mandatory, even if you go on a cruise and briefly want to go ashore in Egypt.

The age of the traveller is also irrelevant for the visa application. Children also need to apply for a visa, regardless of their age. As children generally travel together with their parents, it is possible to add accompanying children to the same application form with which the parents apply for their Egyptian visas. This eliminates the need to fill in various details twice, or even more times. The price per person remains the same, however.

Requirements for online application

Obtaining an Egypt visa online is only possible if you meet all the requirements listed below. If you or your trip does not meet all of the requirements, you will have to make an appointment at the embassy to submit your application there.

Length of stay

You can only submit your Egypt visa application online if you plan to stay in the country for less than 30 consecutive days.

Passport

Each traveller must have a passport that is valid for at least eight more months upon arrival in Egypt. Children also need to have their own passport. The passport data must match the data filled in on the visa application form.

Invitation

If you plan to visit family or friends in Egypt, one of them needs to write you a letter of invitation, which you must then show to customs on arrival. If you are simply going on a holiday you do not need an invitation letter.

Itinerary

You are required to possess an itinerary during your trip. This has to at least contain flight and hotel details.

Date of arrival

When applying, the expected date of arrival in Egypt must be filled in. The visa is valid for 90 days from the date of approval. Both the dates of arrival and departure must be within these 90 days. With a multiple-entry visa, all individual dates of arrival and departure must be within the 90-day period. Take note: your stay may not exceed 30 days. You are allowed to change the exact dates of arrival and departure even after the Egypt visa has been granted.

How to apply

Applying for an Egypt visa is easy and only takes a few minutes. Follow the steps below for a quick approval.

Step 1 | Opening the Egypt visa application form

First, you open the form. The form can be found at: <https://e-visa.co.uk/egypt>

Step 2 | Fill in contact and travel details

Fill in the contact and travel details in the application form. Are you travelling with a group? Then you only need to fill in this information once.

Step 3 | Fill in passport details

After filling in the passport details of traveller 1, you can add any fellow travellers to the form. To do so, click on the button 'Add traveller'. Add each traveller for whom you want to apply for an Egypt visa. Next, fill in the passport details of each traveller.

Step 4 | Payment

After completing the form, it is wise to double-check everything. You can then make the payment with Visa, MasterCard, American Express or PayPal.

Step 5 | Provide passport scan or photo of passport

The last step before you receive your Egypt visa is to provide a scan of the passports. This may also be a photo, as long as all the text is clearly legible. You are only asked for a scan of the information page in the passport (the page with the passport photo, name and date of birth).

Step 6 | Receive visa by e-mail

Once all the above steps have been carried out, the visa will be sent by e-mail within a few days. Each traveller must be able to present it on arrival in Egypt. Print it out and carry it with you on your trip.
